

PREMIUM RESOURCES LTD.

CHARTER OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

I. PURPOSE

The Board of Directors (the "Board") of the Premium Resources Ltd. (the "Company") is responsible for the stewardship of the business and for acting in the best interests of the Company, its shareholders and other stakeholders. The Board will discharge its responsibilities directly and through its committees.

The Board shall meet at least quarterly to review the business, operations, corporate governance and financial results of the Company.

Meetings of the Board shall also include meetings, as required, of the independent members of the Board without management being present.

II. COMPOSITION

The Board shall be constituted at all times of a majority of independent directors in accordance with Multilateral Instrument 58-201. The Chairman of the Board should also be independent or alternatively the Board will appoint an independent lead director. A director is considered to be "independent" if he or she has no direct or indirect material relationship which could in the view of the Board reasonably interfere with the exercise of a director's independent judgment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a director shall be considered to have a material relationship with the Company (and therefore shall be considered a "non-independent" director) if he or she falls in one of the categories listed in Schedule "A" attached hereto.

III. RESPONSIBILITIES

The Board's mandate is the stewardship of the Company and its responsibilities include, without limitation of its general mandate, the following specific responsibilities:

- The assignment to committees of directors of the Company the general responsibility for developing the Company's approach to: (i) financial reporting and internal controls; (ii) issues relating to compensation of directors, officers and employees; and (iii) corporate governance issues and matters relating to nomination of directors.
- The formation of committees of the Board when it is deemed appropriate by the Board to deal with specific issues that arise.
- With the assistance of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee:
 - ✓ Developing the Company's approach to corporate governance, including developing a set of corporate governance principles and guidelines specific to the Company.
 - ✓ Reviewing the composition of the Board and ensuring it meets its independence criteria.
 - ✓ To the extent feasible, satisfying itself as to the integrity of the Chief Executive Officer and other senior officers and that such officers create a culture of integrity throughout the Company.
 - ✓ Assessing at least annually, the effectiveness of the Board as a whole, the committees of the Board and the contribution of individual directors, including, considering the appropriate size of the Board.

- ✓ Ensuring that an appropriate review and selection process for new nominees to the Board is in place.
- ✓ Ensuring that an appropriate orientation and education program for new members of the Board is in place.
- ✓ Approving disclosure and securities compliance policies, including communications policies of the Company.
- ✓ Reviewing and approving the formal charters of the committees of the Board.
- With the assistance of the Audit and Risk Management Committee:
 - ✓ Ensuring the integrity of the Company's internal controls and management information systems.
 - ✓ Ensuring the Company's ethical behaviour and compliance with laws and regulations, audit and accounting principles and the Company's own governing documents.
 - ✓ Identifying the principal risks of the Company's business and ensuring that appropriate systems are in place to manage these risks, including, without limitation, implementing currency and metals hedging programs, as deemed appropriate.
 - ✓ Reviewing and approving significant operational and financial matters and providing direction to management on these matters.
 - ✓ Approving annual and interim financial statements of the Company together with the annual management's discussion and analysis, unless such approval is specifically delegated to the Audit and Risk Management Committee.
 - ✓ As required and agreed upon, providing assistance to shareholders concerning the integrity of the Company's reported financial performance.
- With the assistance of the Human Resources and Compensation Committee:
 - ✓ Establishing appropriate performance criteria for the senior management of the Company, and approving the overall compensation of the senior management and the directors.
- With the assistance of the Chief Executive Officer, monitoring and reviewing feedback provided by the Company's shareholders.
- Succession planning including selecting, appointing, training, monitoring, evaluating and, if necessary, replacing senior management to ensure management succession.
- Adopting a strategic planning process and approving, at least annually, a strategic plan that takes into account business opportunities and business risks identified by the Board and/or a committee of the Board and monitoring performance against such plans.
- Reviewing and approving corporate objectives and goals applicable to the Company's senior management and monitoring realization of those objectives.
- Reviewing with senior management:
 - ✓ major corporate decisions which require approval of the Board and approving such decisions as they arise;

- ✓ major capital expenditure decisions in excess of thresholds previously authorized in a budget or by resolution of the Board; and
- ✓ material decisions relating to senior personnel, major property acquisitions or divestments, major investments, and other decisions, where deemed appropriate.
- Performing such other functions as prescribed by law or assigned to the Board in the Company's constating documents and by-laws.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS

1. The members of the Board are expected to attend all meetings of the Board unless prior notification of absence is provided.
2. The members of the Board are required to have reviewed meeting materials provided in advance of the meeting and be prepared to discuss such materials at the meeting, to actively participate in deliberations, and to take full responsibility for decisions of the Board.
3. Members of the Board will treat their fellow Board members with respect.
4. The members of the Board should endeavour to avoid conflicts between their own personal interests and those of the Company and, where conflicts exist, to fully disclose such conflicts to the Board and refrain from participating in decisions relating to the subject matter of such conflicts.

Approved by the Board of Directors of the Company on August 9, 2022.
